CARMENÈRE, CASA SILVA RESERVA, COLCHAGUA VALLEY, CHILE 2009

Deep red/purple in color with complex aromas of blackberries, plums, chocolate, toffee, white pepper and spice. Made from 88% Los Lingues and 12% Lolol fruit, this big red is full in body, powerful yet elegant. On the palate, it is round and mouth-filling with sweet tannins and a gorgeous balance between fruit and French oak. Aged 50% in French oak for 7 months. On the finish, it is long and rich.
